

---

Lindsey Blackburn

Director of Curriculum and Assessment
Center for Charter School Quality
Ohio Alliance for Public Charter Schools

As Director of Curriculum and Assessment for the Ohio Alliance’s Center for Charter School Quality, Lindsey Blackburn plans and delivers teacher professional development in curriculum mapping, assessment design, and data analysis. Through professional development, she brings particular expertise in the cultural development of the school-wide, data-teams approach to effective teaching.

Lindsey is a California native, having earned several degrees from the University of California, Davis including Bachelor’s in International Relations and Spanish, Teaching Credentials in social studies and bilingual education, and a Master’s degree in Education. She also has an administrative specialist license in Curriculum, Instruction, and Professional Development from Ashland University.